Like something hidden behind the seen. As if something was magical. You can't see it but you can sense it.

Subtle enough to cause a disturbance without disrupting

Notes

Not every typeface may naturally provoke a subtle disturbance, in those cases we can make a logo image by using the typeface and adding some effects to pull out the subtle disturbance.

Select no more than three typefaces that speak to you. I will then work with it in a vector editor to create a logo that we can scale infinitely for print and digital displays.

If no alternative speaks to you we will fall back to Charlemagne.
